

WHAT IS BEING KIND?

Nico and Lola Lessons

Being kind is treating others the way you want to be treated.

Being kind is making our world a better place.

Spread kindness in your school!

Meggan Hill and Susan Graunke interact with children on every level, encouraging them to explore the worlds of reading and writing. The author and photographer of Nico and Lola are excited to offer your school various presentations, tailored to meet the needs of every grade level:

- 🐾 Readings of Nico and Lola with interactive discussions on kindness
- 🐾 “How to Pass It On and Make Our World a Better Place” discussions
- 🐾 “Writing Your First Picture Book” or “Photography” workshops

Meggan and Susan believe their book Nico and Lola and the book’s messages of kindness will resonate with your students, teachers and entire school community!
