

“The students were engaged in the story and fascinated with the photos. The students discussed the content of Nico’s story and easily made connections to the text. Liberty Elementary students and teachers fell in love with Nico and Lola.”

*– Angela Gwynne-Atwater
Principal, Liberty Elementary School*

“Nico finds many ways to be kind to Lola. As he does his acts of kindness, we learn ways to be kind. Acts of kindness are not “planned” but are done out of love for another. Nico’s love of Lola is heartwarming.”

*– Mrs. Reimers, Teacher
Immanuel Lutheran*

Nico & Lola

KINDNESS SHARED BETWEEN A BOY AND A DOG

A boy must search his heart to find ways to be so kind while taking care of an adorable dog named Lola. Tender messages are woven into captivating photographs in this tale which reminds us we can be just a little bit kinder in everything we do. A book for every child to read, share and remember.

Meggan Hill and Susan M. Graunke love to interact with children on every level, encouraging them to explore the worlds of reading and writing. They hope their message of kindness resonates with students, teachers and school communities.

This author and photographer can offer your school the following services, tailored to meet the needs of different grade and class levels:

- Animal discussions
- Book readings
- Book signings
- Children and pet relationship discussions
- Creative writing with “juicy” words
- Discussions on how to write a book
- Introduction to photography
- Open forum and/or structured discussions on kindness
- Pass It On discussions – making the world a kinder place

Presentations can be used from pre-school level on up to 5th grade classes